Jebus Water System

The "gutter" or "water tunnel" (Hebrew tsinnor) mentioned as the means whereby David's forces entered the city has been the subject of much archaeological investigation.

QUESTIONS

What did the over-confident inhabitants of Jebus say to taunt David and his forces?

---

Who climbed the "water shaft" (gutter) first and became the chief of David's forces?

---

Come up with a theory using the picture to the left about how the city was taken.

The name "Gihon" literally means "gushing." Until recent times the spring gushed perhaps because of a natural underground siphon system. An ancient Arab legend suggests a dragon lived beneath the cave from which the spring gushed. What is the name given the spring in Neh. 2:13? _____
